LIBERTY CITY RANKED WORST PLACE IN AMERICA. AGAIN.

by Frenchie Cockmaven

It's the prize no city wants to win. The award no one wants. Like a schoolboy informed he does not play well with others, Liberty City has once more been voted "The least likely place to succeed in America." Eight out of the past twelve years the city has won this dubious accolade, and this year was the first that the city topped the bill in 6 out of 7 categories.

Liberty City was not "The city where you were most likely to get eaten by a wild animal" (that dubious honour went to Los Santos) but was considered the place you were most likely to get mugged or robbed, die of diseases caused by pollution, be exposed to lethal amounts of radiation, become an alcoholic or drug addict, get accidental gender re-alignment or marry a relative.

City officials claimed "People should not get so excited about reports like this. The fact is our town is a vibrant, energetic place that people love. If you take a few simple precautions, like wearing

*"Liberty City has once more a gasmask and having a full-time military trained bodyguard, you are just as safe and happy in Liberty City as any other profoundly dangerous urban environment."

Mayor Hole was unavailable for comment but is known to be a big fan of the city, especially after the fortune he made in local politics. ♦

"MOTORCYCLES KILL KIDS AND MUST BE BANNED"

SAY PROTEST GROUP

by Gaylord Morrison

A new protest group is pushing hard to have all forms of two-wheeled transport banned from our city streets. Following the successful banning of bicycles from Liberty City a few years ago, American Road Safety for Everybody (A.R.S.E.) has been pushing hard in recent weeks to get motorcycles banned from the city. They quote some chilling statistics to support their case, although some believe they may have made these up. An A.R.S.E. spokesman told the Liberty Tree, "Motorcycles cause more deaths per year than old age. They are the number one killer in our city and must be banned."

He continued, "If the city doesn't take action, then we the people are going to have to start. People on motorcycles are trying to kill all of us, so we at A.R.S.E. say it's time to fight back. All bikers will be treated as fair game going forward and every civic-minded citizen is encouraged to knock these killers off their motorcycles." A.R.S.E. was founded thanks to a generous donation from the Maibatsu Corporation of America. The car giant yesterday unveiled plans for its next generation of cars and trucks, including the Monstrosity, an SUV that promises, "It will revolutionize the suburbs" and is expected to hit the streets sometime in 2001.

"People on motorcycles are trying to kill all of us, so we at A.R.S.E. say it's time to fight back."

There were some technical issues at the demonstration as the prototype had to be filled using a gasoline tanker and was running partially on jet fuel. A minor fire broke out but only a couple of people were hurt, only one of which is likely to be permanently disfigured. A.R.S.E. continues its fight. ♦

POLITICS TODAYR.C. HOLE IN ANOTHER PROBEby Anul Garbaskar*

"Mayor Hole is up to his old tricks again," claims a real estate mogul. The City is to investigate Hole, who has been at City Hall since 1992 and has already survived

"Hole is up to his neck in filth once more."

three major scandals. There was the famous million dollar lunch incident in 1993, in which Hole, three Russian prostitutes and a senior manager from a construction company were trying to secure government contracts.

Then there was the incident in 1995, when Hole was photographed having lunch with members of the Forelli crime family. And lastly there was an incident last year in which he was accused of securing drugs for city officials in exchange for sanitation contracts.

Now, according to Donald Love, part-time resident and a very rich man indeed, "Hole is up to his neck in filth once more." Love claims he has evidence to prove Hole had accepted bribes in exchange for city construction contracts. "I will be challenging Hole and his corrupt regime any way I can. If I can't get the court to take me seriously, like all very rich men, I will challenge him by running for mayor. I have no previous political experience, but again, I am very rich, and you can't beat that." ♦

Their slogan may be "Breakfast just got quicker" but the early morning craze that is sweeping through our city is now under an FDA probe. The popular breakfast cereal you snort, RAILS, by Mendez Foodstuffs of Medellin, has been wowing food retailers since it was introduced last year, but some parenting groups are concerned and now the FDA has launched an investigation.

Reports of children having nosebleeds abound, while some parents insist that after enjoying a healthy serving of RAILS, their kids talk at length about how they are going to take over the world and become obsessed by conspiracy theories.

Meanwhile some schools are reporting a RAILS epidemic. "I want to report a RAILS epidemic" said one school spokesman, who spoke to us on the condition of anonymity. As his comment was unfeasibly banal, we are only too happy to oblige. "More RAILSplease" may be the slogan kids are shouting across the country but parents are wondering, "Are RAILS really such a good thing?" The kids may be confident, but at what cost? ♦

TELEVISION

SWAPMEET SEASON STARTS TONIGHT

The Weasel network is pinning all of its ratings hopes on its powerful Thursday evening pinch hitter – Swapmeet – which makes its season premiere tonight. This nine season all-star has kept Weasel heading up rankings in its divisional-topping, pennant-chasing, metaphor-mixing mayhem.

Okay, so I wanted to be in sports and ended up in TV, but I can still write. In fact, I'm going to write a novel one day and prove I'm not just a worthless drunk, and then where will you be? Sorry you let me go, that's where. Anyway, I've got to be honest. Tonight's big surprise in Swapmeet, Lorraine's pregnancy along with the charming addition of Sonar the Dolphin, should keep this sexually ambiguous situationer, with all those great haircuts and apartments, firmly in the number one place for another season.

While that's good for executives at Weasel and Swapmeet's attractive cast, one protest group's spokesperson said, "Swapmeet encourages our children to go and live in communes with friends, suggests life in the city is fun and rent is cheap. Quite frankly, this is a lie. Life is miserable and when I was in the city, I had to work the streets to pay my rent. If my husband knew, he'd divorce me." However, other protest groups are not so sure. "The main issue with Swapmeet," said another spokesman from an entirely different protest group, "is that it is awful. The jokes aren't funny, the characters aren't believable and the set does not look real. In season two, there was one joke that made me laugh slightly but now, four years later, I have not laughed since. That is a real crime. Just because the characters look good and there is a laugh track does not mean we don't need actual jokes. This is teaching our children the true meaning of confusion."

The debate rages on. Swapmeet is followed by the lamentable urban meets upscale tale, Bad T and Theo. This laugh-free sitcom has really overstayed its welcome, even before it had made its premiere. Watching a bunch of ludicrous racial stereotypes in some entirely predictable fish-out-of-water scenarios just isn't funny. ♦

HOW TO LOSE FRIENDS AND ALIENATE PEOPLE?

Become a Multiplaying Badass

Always wanted to smack your friend around a little, destroy the car your neighbour is about to purchase at the car dealer or even drive a tank around the city? Well Mayor Hole is giving you that opportunity. For a one week period only Liberty City is opening up for absolute legal mayhem in celebration of his 59th birthday which will happen later this year.

As part of the birthday celebrations all readers of Liberty Tree will have the chance to enter the Multi-play Competition. Detailed prize mayhem missions are laid out over the next 3 pages.

NOTICE

To start a multiplayer game, press the START button at any time and select "Multiplayer".

Software titles that support Wireless functionality allow you to communicate with other PSP® systems, download data and compete against other players via connection to a wireless local area network (WLAN). You can adjust the network settings to allow connection to a wireless local area network. Grand Theft Auto: Liberty City Stories is only playable through Ad Hoc mode.

LIBERTY CITY SURVIVOR

Are you a hater and not a lover? If so then you are going to die to be involved in this game.

Every man for himself - Kill the other players.

The first player to reach the Kill Limit or have the most kills when the Time Limit has been reached wins the game.

Killing another player earns you a point but kill yourself and a point will be deducted.

Or team up and kill the opposing gang members.

The first gang to reach the Kill Limit or have the most kills when the Time Limit has been reached wins the game.

PROTECTION GET RACKET STRETCH

Love your car like a lady? Would you protect it with your life and some obvious military power? Now you have the chance to prove your commitment, not just to one beauty but to four sparkling limos.

Destroy four limos at the opposing gang's base.

Defend the four limos at your base from incoming Attackers.

The game is played in two rounds.

Each gang will automatically be assigned in the Defending or Attacking roles.

A timer displayed onscreen will measure the time it takes for the Attacking gang to destroy the base in the first round.

Once all four cars in the Defenders' base have been destroyed, the roles of the Attacking & Defending gang will switch and the second round will begin.

The time it took for the base to be destroyed the first round will now be displayed onscreen and will be counting down.

The new Attacking gang must now destroy the limos within this time limit or the other gang will win the game.

I want, I want, I want. Why not have everything that you desire? Today you desire your friend's shiny new car, unfortunately they also desire yours.

Each gang must steal their opposing gang's car and return it to their own base while protecting their own gang car from being stolen.

You can return your own gang car by driving it back to base or by destroying it.

Your gang car will automatically be returned to your base after a short period of time if it is unattended by the opposing gang.

You must have both gang cars at your base to enable a successful capture.

The first gang to reach the Capture Limit or make the most captures within the Time Limit wins the game.

There is only one tank per round.

In the first round, all players will have the same chance to get to the tank for the first time.

Once the tank is occupied, the player who causes the most damage to the tank will be placed in the tank for the next round.

The first player to reach the target Tank Time inside a tank wins the game.

Restaurant Review

The Pilgrim's Pantry

by a Special Correspondent

They fled Britain because it was too liberal, now they've opened a themed restaurant in your town. The Pilgrim's Pantry is the newest entry in the themed restaurant craze that has swept through the city in the last few years. It's a craze that has been marked by noticeable successes (who would have thought "Death Row", in which kids get to cook their own food with personal electric chairs, would prove to be such an enduring birthday party staple?) and failures (Nagasaki was a tasteless joke gone too far, even for this town) and now the Pilgrim's Pantry are having their hessian clad turn in the sun. The food is simple, traditional fare - raw turnips, freshly slaughtered turkeys, salted meats and so on. While the dining room is Puritan themed, it's unsurprisingly sparse.

But it is the edutainment on offer that will keep kids delighted and parents happy that their kids are being educated and entertained while enjoying nutritional fare.

"Me, my husband and our two little ones were delighted when halfway through our meal a Native American in traditional costume came to our table and taught us how to catch a wild turkey. The kids were even more delighted when a man in Puritan costume screamed 'I'm bringing you to God, by the Book, or the sword, Savages' and promptly stabbed him to death. My husband greatly enjoyed the Witch Drown 'n' Burn that followed dessert. I myself loved it when the friendly and informative staff stoned a heathen to death for misinterpreting a Bible passage during a trivia quiz. My husband complained it was historically inaccurate, but I was having too much fun to care. Trust me, if you and your family are into historical fun, you'll love the Pilgrim's Pantry."

The Pilgrim's Pantry, where good friends, good values and hunger are history. ♦

Open every day, except Sunday.

Liberty City Survivor

DEATHMATCH

Classic deathmatch, take out the other players to rack up the most kills. Hit the pre-determined point-limit or have the highest total when time expires.

Protection Racket

DEFEND THE BASE

Divide into two teams and defend the four limousines from the attacking team. The timer starts counting up and once the attacking team destroys the limousines the teams switch. Now the defending team must destroy the limousines in less time than it took the attacking team. The team that destroys their objectives quickest is the winner!

Get Stretch

CAPTURE THE FLAG

Seal the opposing team's car and return it to your base while protecting your own. Destroying your team's car will return it to the base. In order to capture the opposing team's car your car must be in your base. First team to reach the capture limit wins!

Tanks for the Memories

TURN-BASED TANK SURVIVAL

Be the first to the tank and try to survive the target Tank Time. Other players must try to destroy your tank before the Tank Time is reached. If this happens the player who caused the most damage to the tank will now occupy the new tank and you must destroy it as quickly as possible. First player that hits the Tank Time wins!

The Hit List

TURN-BASED SURVIVAL

A player is randomly "Marked" and all other players must try to kill the Mark as quickly as possible. Once that player is killed the Mark switches to a new player, and the player that killed the Mark has time added to his survival total. After all players have been Marked and killed the player with the longest survival time wins!

Street Rage

CHECKPOINT RACE

Players must drive through each checkpoint to get to the finish line. During the race you are allowed to change vehicles and shoot other players. If any player is killed they are automatically spawned in a new vehicle after a short period of time. First across the line wins.

The Wedding List

CAR COLLECTION

A free-for-all where players must collect cars scattered around the city and deliver them to hidden shipping crates. Cash is awarded based on the condition of the car when it is delivered. The player that collects the most cash wins!
